

“Have salt in yourselves,
and be at peace with one another.”

+ Mark 9:50b

THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

September 26, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In biblical times, salt was treasured almost as much as gold. Among its many uses was preserving food and other perishables. In today’s Gospel, Jesus calls us salt, by which He reveals how much God values us.

Sometimes people outside the Church also see our worth and offer their support. It is nothing new. Moses valued two men who received the Spirit even though they were missing from gathering with the seventy elders. Jesus valued a man healing in His name, though he was not one of the Twelve.

We are worth our salt—Christ in us—so much that a person receiving us receives Christ. And within the Church, our saltiness supports, prays for, cheers up, confesses, and forgives our brothers and sister in Christ.

We are worth so much that God does not want anything to cause us to stumble. “Have salt in yourselves,” He says, “and be at peace with one another.”

Yours in Christ Jesus,

- P Almighty God, our maker and redeemer, we poor sinners confess unto You that we are by nature sinful and unclean and that we have sinned against You by thought, word, and deed. Wherefore we flee for refuge to Your infinite mercy, seeking and imploring Your grace for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- C O most merciful God, who has given Your only-begotten Son to die for us, have mercy upon us and for His sake grant us remission of all our sins; and by Your Holy Spirit increase in us true knowledge of You and of Your will and true obedience to Your Word, to the end that by Your grace we may come to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
- P Almighty God, our heavenly Father, has had mercy upon us and has given His only Son to die for us and for His sake forgives us all our sins. To those who believe on His name He gives power to become the children of God and has promised them His Holy Spirit. He that believes and is baptized shall be saved.

OLD TESTAMENT

Numbers 11:4–6, 10–16, 24–29

P The Old Testament Reading is from Numbers, chapter 11.

⁴Now the rabble that was among them had a strong craving. And the people of Israel also wept again and said, “Oh that we had meat to eat! ⁵We remember the fish we ate in Egypt that cost nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic. ⁶But now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at. . . .”

¹⁰Moses heard the people weeping throughout their clans, everyone at the door of his tent. And the anger of the LORD blazed hotly, and Moses was displeased. ¹¹Moses said to the LORD, “Why have You dealt ill with Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You lay the burden of all this people on me? ¹²Did I conceive all this people? Did I give them birth, that You should say to me, ‘Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a nursing child,’ to the land that You swore to give their fathers? ¹³Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they weep before me and say, ‘Give us meat, that we may eat.’ ¹⁴I am not able to carry all this people alone; the burden is too heavy for me. ¹⁵If You will treat me like this, kill me at once, if I find favor in Your sight, that I may not see my wretchedness.”

¹⁶Then the LORD said to Moses, “Gather for Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them, and bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them take their stand there with you. . . .”

²⁴So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD. And he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people and placed them around the tent. ²⁵Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the Spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. And as soon as the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied. But they did not continue doing it.

²⁶Now two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the Spirit rested on them. They were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷And a young man ran and told Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

²⁸And Joshua the son of Nun, the assistant of Moses from his youth, said, “My lord Moses, stop them.”

²⁹But Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD’s people were prophets, that the LORD would put His Spirit on them!”

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL

Psalm 91:11; 103:1

to guard you in | all your ways.

Bless the LORD, | O my soul,*

and all that is within me, bless His | holy name!

EPISTLE

James 5:1–20

P The Epistle is from James, chapter five.

¹Come now, you rich, weep and howl for the miseries that are coming upon you. ²Your riches have rotted and your garments are moth-eaten. ³Your gold and silver have corroded, and their corrosion will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure in the last days.

⁴Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, are crying out against you, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. ⁵You have lived on the earth in luxury and in self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

⁶You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous person. He does not resist you.

⁷Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. ⁸You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

⁹Do not grumble against one another, brothers, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door. ¹⁰As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

¹²But above all, my brothers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your “yes” be yes and your “no” be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation.

¹³Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. ¹⁴Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. ¹⁶Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. ¹⁷Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. ¹⁸Then he prayed again, and heaven gave rain, and the earth bore its fruit.

¹⁹My brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings him back, ²⁰let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from his wandering will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 9:38–50

P The Holy Gospel according to Saint Mark, the ninth chapter.

C Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

³⁸John said to Him, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.”

³⁹But Jesus said, “Do not stop him, for no one who does a mighty work in My name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of Me. ⁴⁰For the one who is not against us is for us. ⁴¹For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward.

⁴²“Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. ⁴³And if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than with two hands to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire, ⁴⁴‘where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.’ ⁴⁵For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁴⁵And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame than with two feet to be thrown into hell, ⁴⁶‘where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.’ ⁴⁷For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁴⁷And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, ⁴⁸‘where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.’ ⁴⁹For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁴⁹For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁵⁰Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, how will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

 by whom all things were made;
 who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man;
 and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
 He suffered and was buried.

✠ SOLI DEO GLORIA ✠
(TO GOD ALONE BE THE GLORY)

SOME FINAL THOUGHTS FROM YOUR PASTOR

Brothers and Sisters,

Holly and I have been watching “WKRP in Cincinnati” at night. It’s nice to have a lighthearted, easygoing show to wind down the day. We started watching the show after I accepted the call to serve at KFUE Radio—if I’m going to work at a radio station, why not watch a sitcom about a radio station, right?

A strange coincidence is that the Programming Director in WKRP is named Andy and the Programming Director at KFUE is named Andy, also! That led me to wonder how the other characters might line-up with my future coworkers. Naturally, President Harrison is station owner Arthur Carlson, “The Big Guy.” And then there’s the sales manager Herb Tarlek, sort of a radio station version of a used car salesman. He deals with the clients . . . who pay money to the radio station . . . kinda like donors Oh no! I’m going to be Herb! LOL!

I remember watching “WKRP in Cincinnati” when I was a little kid (reruns, I suppose, since it debuted the same year that I was born). The part that I remember most is the closing theme. No, I can’t understand the lyrics very well (even the subtitling on the show sometimes displays “unintelligible” instead of a caption) but there is one part that mentions “At-at here and everywhere.” Being a science fiction nerd, I was convinced that the singer was talking about the giant AT-AT “walkers” in Star Wars! <grin>

Speaking of music, we had a brief excursus during the “Zoom” Bible Study last Tuesday about music and how some secular songs seem to fit with our relationship to Jesus. One example was “The Wind Beneath My Wings.” To a degree, this is true! I’ve thought the same thing about pop/dance songs I love. But it is true only to a degree.

Often, we think of our relationship with Jesus as a relationship all about love (and, yes, this is true)! But the kind of pop love songs are usually about a boy and girl. Our relationship with Jesus, while being all about love, isn’t the “love” that pop songs are talking about, even if that love means support and service and sacrifice. Pop songs almost always are talking about eros (sensual or romantic) love or perhaps philia (friendship) love. Holy Scripture (which mentioned eros and philia) also speaks of storge (family) love and agape (sacrificial) love.

The love of the Triune God transcends all of these ideas of love. To grasp the totality of love as God knows love, we look to Jesus—He is the love of God made manifest! Recall the beginning of the Gospel of John: “No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, He has made Him known” (John 1:18). Our Lord set aside His glory, “[emptying] Himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men” (Phil 2:7), so that we might know God. And to know God is also to know the totality of God’s love, namely Jesus!

All this is to say that Jesus is so much more than our lover or our friend . . . He is our Lord, our Creator, our Redeemer, our Judge! He loves us and He is our friend, but in the most intimate and fearsome way! He is God!

Sadly, this Tuesday at Noon is our FINAL study of the Psalms on “Zoom.” We’re studying Psalm 58. I’d love to see you there and at the final 7:00pm Prayer Service on Wednesday (on Facebook or in-person).
